REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING JANUARY 13TH, 1859.

TURPENTINE-During the early part of the week there was nothing done in this article, owing to the fact that none had been brought in up to the close of Saturday. On Monday, however, several parcels were received, and the market opened at previous quotations-$2 80 for virgin and yellow opened at previous quotations—$2 80 for Virgin and yellow sisting of CORN, PEAS, FODDER, and POTATOES; dip, and $1 60 for hard, $\varphi$ 280 fbs,—at which it has since together with the stock of HOGS, CATTLE, and HORSES, WAGONS, CARTS and FARNING UTENSILS. Also, ruled firm, with a brisk demand from distillers. For the HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE. The place, week just ended the transactions reach 6,210 bbls., as followed.

The sales for the week comprise 1,181 bbls. at $1 62½, $2 50 to $3 25 $\tilde{2}$ bbl., as in quality. No. 2 has also been in moderate demand, but scarcely any offering except of inferior quality. Sales of 3,272 bbls. inferior at $1 10 a $1 20 $\text{\text{Bbl.}} In Common the transactions have been small, owing mainly to the high rates of freight and holders asking figures above the views of buyers. We quote sales as follows: Thursday, 2,000 bbls. at $1 05 for large bbls.; Friday, 1.700 du. at $1 05 for do. do.; Monday, 600 do. at $1 for small, and $1 05 for large bbls.; Tuesday, 250 do. $1 05 for medium bbls. - closing with an upward tendency in prices. TAR-Remains without alteration in price. There is a moderate enquiry for shipping purposes, and parcels have readily changed hands on arrival. The sales for the week have been light, reaching only about 400 bbls. at $1 80 7

bbl. BEEF CATTLE, &c-Scarcely any beeves have been received during the past week or two, and at present the market is poorly supplied. We note a fair enquiry from butchers, and a few droves of good quality would find ready sale. We quote at 6 1-2 to 7 1-2 cents # 1b., as in quality. One lot of SHEEF (27 head) was brought in a few days since, and sales of white at 31 a 323.

sold at $2 25 a $2 50 each. BARR. AS-Empty Spirits Turpentine barrels have been in rather limited request since our last, and consequently the transactions have been small. Few or none have been received during the past week, but the supply on market is fully sufficient for present purposes. We quote small sales of second hand ones (as they run) at prices ranging from $1 60 to $1 70 each, as in quality.

Corron-At the time of closing our review on Thursday last there was considerable activity in the market for this article, but for want of stock to operate upon the transactions up to Saturday were light-closing on that day at an advance of 4 cent on previous quotations. On Monday. however, the advices by the European steamer were ivoeived, reporting a decline in the foreign markets, and since eccipts per railroad have been small, the larger portion brought in being intended for shipment, and but little remains unsold in receivers' hands. We quote sales during the week as follows: Thursday, 81 bales at 114 cents for strict and good middling; Friday, 68-do. at 11 1-2 cents for middling, 114 cents for strict middling, and 112 cents for good middling; Saturday, 16 do at 11; cents for ordinary; and Wednesday, 37 do at 11 9-16 cents for good middling CORN MEAL-Is in light demand from retailers, and market very well supplied. Selling in the small way at 80 to 85

COFFEE-There is a moderate stock of nearly all descriptions on market, and we notice merely a retail demand. We refer to our table for store quotations, as in quality and quantity, FLOUR-For State brands the market contines to rule quiet, and we have no change to notice on our remarks of this day week. The quantity received has been very small and the stock remaining in dealers hands is quite light; retailers, however, seem but little inclined to operate at present quotations, and nothing of consequence has been done in the way of sales. We quote one or two small parcels as sold from store at $5 75 for superfine, and $6 $9 bbl. for fam-

GRAIN-In CORN we have to notice a further improvement in price, and a decidedly better feeling in the market. One cargo of 1,400 bushels was received from Hyde county on Tuesday, and sold at 671 cents # bushel. There is a fair demand existing at present, and a few cargoes would sell readily. -- Oars-Nothing new to report. No receipts or sales, and quotations in table are nominal ;-dealers have a moderate supply in store, and the demand is light .-134 PEAS-For Cow there is a fair enquiry from dealers, and market poorly supplied. Only one or two small lots have been received and sold at 75 cents # bushel. ____RICE_ Clean is in moderate stock, and sells from store at 31 cents

HAY .- Since our last some 300 bales Eastern have been re ceived, which changed hands at $1 39 100 lbs., cash and 90 days being an advance on former price. No arrivals of Northern for several weeks past, and the stock in dealers' hands has become materially reduced; in moderate demand. In the absence of sales we are unable to give a correct quotation of the market.

LIME-Is in light stock, but we notice merely a retail demand. See table for prices. LUMBER. River Arrives very sparingly, and is in moderate demand. Only one raft received since our last, which sold at $7 for scantling and $9 $9 M. for wide boards. Molasses .- For Cuba there is but little demand at present; there is, however, only a small stock at present on market, and we refer to our table for quotations. We learn that one or two cargoes of new crop are now daily looked PEA NUTS .- Since our last the market has ruled decidedly dull, and at the close buyers do not appear disposed to purchase unless at materially lower rates. We quote sales for the week at prices ranging from $1 20 to $1 30 P bushelclosing at about $1 25 for a prime article.

POTATOES-The market is heavily stocked with Irish, and as yet we notice only a light demand for planting purposes. We quote small sales at $2 a $2 50 $8 bbl., as in quantity .-Sweet are in good request and arrive sparingly; sell from carts readily at 50 cents # bushel. Provisions-The Bacon market remains about the same as noted for two or three weeks past. The demand for both N. C. and Western make is limited, and the supply in store is sufficient for present purposes. We have to report sales only in the retail way at prices ranging within quotations .-See table.----LARD-The receipts for one or two weeks past have been meagre, and the supply in first hands has become materially reduced. We quote small sales of N. C. make at 111 a 12 cents, and Western at 111 cents # 1b.-PORK—For fresh there has been an active demand throughout the week, and but little has been brought in from the country. We quote sales from carts at 7½ a 9 cents # 1b., as in quality. In Northern we have no change to report; stock small, and demand light. See table for store rates.
